Barbara Hannah Jungian analyst and author explores Jung's method of active imagination often considered the most powerful tool in analytical psychology for achieving direct contact with the unconscious and attaining greater inner awareness using historical and contemporary case studies Hannah traces the human journey toward personal wholeness this approach to confronting the unconscious is a healing process that applies to both men and women and deals in depth with the injured feminine as well as many powerful archetypal forces Encounters with the Soul is the first and only book I know of which can promote the understanding of active imagination by illustrating through various examples the steps pitfalls and successes of this method of encountering the unconscious Marie Louise von Franz Barbara Hannah 1891 1986 was born in England she went to Zürich in 1929 to study with Carl Jung and lived in Switzerland the rest of her life a close associate of Jung until his death she was a practicing psychotherapist and lecturer at the C. G. Jung Institute her books available from Chiron include The Archetypal Symbolism of Animals Encounters with the Soul Jung His Life and Work a biographical memoir and Striving Toward Wholeness

This book was one of the first works made available to a general readership on the subject of active imagination a technique developed by C. G. Jung in which the imaginal world is entered deliberately while awake in order to gain self knowledge and resolve conflicts in it Rix Weaver presents an account of her work of active imagination with one of her analysands a process that began with a dream and yielded a personal myth recounted here with amplification and commentary

The writings of C. G. Jung himself are the best place to read about all his main ideas but where to start when jung's collected works run to more than eighteen volumes robert h hopcke's guide to jung's voluminous writings shows exactly the best place to begin for getting a handle on each of jung's key concepts and ideas from archetypal symbols to analytical psychology to ufos each chapter explains one of jung's principal concerns then directs the reader where to read about it in depth in the collected works each chapter includes a list of secondary sources to approach for further study which the author has updated for this edition to include books published in the ten years since the guided tour's first appearance jungian analyst joan chodorow brings together a key selection of jung's writings on active imagination in her introduction she clearly explains jung's methods of achieving self knowledge and individuation

jung's technique of active imagination and desoille's directed waking dream method brings together carl jung's active imagination and robert desoille's l'ave-veille dirigé directed waking dream method red it studies the historical development of these approaches in central europe in the first half of the 20th century and explores their theoretical similarities and differences proposing an integrated framework of clinical practice the book aims to study the wider european context of the 1900s which influenced the development of both jung's and desoille's methods this work compares the spatial metaphors of interiority used by both jung and desoille to describe the traditional concept of inner psychic space in the waking dreams of jung's active imagination and desoille's red it also attempts a broader theoretical comparison between the procedural aspects of both red and active imagination by identifying commonalities and divergences between the two approaches this book is a unique contribution to analytical psychology and will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students interested in the use of imagination and mental imagery in analysis psychotherapy and counselling the book's historical focus will be of particular relevance to jungian and desoillian scholars since it is the first of its kind to trace the connections between the two schools and it gives a detailed account of desoille's early life and his first written works this book was a gradiva award nominee for 2021
